Representative W. J. Sheldon says that Kauai will be very modest in her requests for appropriations this year.
In the same breath, however, he expresses the opinion that Oahu has bogged it all in the past and Kauai was never treated fairly.

After getting her passengers and freight aboard, the Manchuria sailed from her anchorage outside about 9 o'clock last evening for the Orient.
She never came into port at all, the port agents of the company considered such a step too dangerous.
